CEFR (Common European Framework of Reference for Languages):

The European Framework provides a unified basis for language learning across Europe. In six standardized levels, it describes the skills a learner has at each step along the way.

Our syllabus is within an international framework, wherein we focus on all 4 aspects of learning a foreign language i.e., Speaking, Reading, Listening, and Writing. For this, we use the aids like audio, videos, role-plays, and an ample number of exercises.

Why German?

- The most widely spoken language in Europe
- Germany: Hub of the automobile industry, mechanical or any engineering field, thus an advantage for engineers to learn German
- Great career opportunity in 100's big German companies for any graduate with excellent German skills
- Germany's universities: an excellent international reputation and generous scholarship offers
- Germany: sponsors of over 60,000 international exchanges each year
- Opportunities for doctors and medical students to work in Germany
- Jobs in Germany for Nurses and Physiotherapists

Highlights of our courses:

- Online platform available with all the important material
- Communicative Teaching-Methods
- Exam preparation for the Max Mueller Bhavan Examination
- Duration exactly as per international standards

About Trainers:

Our Trainers are C2 in German or have completed their Masters in German (M.A.). They also are qualified trainers with formal education in didactics in addition to long-term experience in teaching.
